(1) No member of the general assembly, constitutional officer of the state, elected official in the executive branch, member of the governor's cabinet or cabinet level staff, or executive or legislative branch employee authorized to execute or negotiate contracts with non-governmental vendors on behalf of the state shall be employed by a non-governmental vendor, or subsidiary of such vendor, during the three-year period immediately following departure from such office or employment if the member, officer, official, or employee has, during the individual's term of office or employment, negotiated with the vendor on behalf of the state concerning a contract valued at five million dollars ($5,000,000) or more.

(2) An executive or legislative branch employee subject to this section whose employment is involuntarily terminated because of economy, consolidation or abolition of functions, curtailment of activities, or other reduction in the state work force may seek and accept employment otherwise prohibited by this section if such person is granted a waiver by the Tennessee ethics

(b) For purposes of this section, "constitutional officer" means the secretary of state, the comptroller of the treasury, or the treasurer.

(c) A violation of subdivision (a)(1) is a Class A misdemeanor.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2009, the public welfare requiring it.
